

The Pyramids

Imagine one to be touched by the elegant and subtle looming light beams projected into sky from these invert shaped pyramids at sunset by the sea. Imagine the liveness scene of barges docking and floating with beautiful green on board, celebrating the importance of water, environment, and public space across southern California.

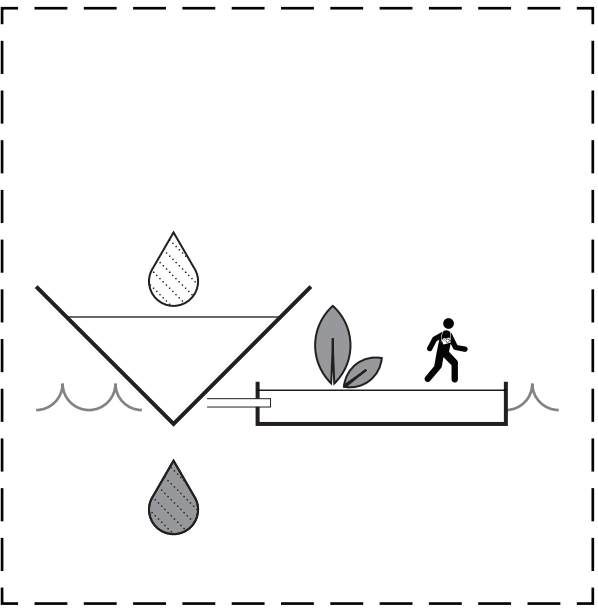

- Exceptional
- Extreme
- Severe
- Moderate
- Abnormally Dry
- None

Pyramid form structure incorporates solar energy harvest and salt water desalination at the same time.

Barges with various programs dock at the structure to harvest and utilize the solar energy and desalinated water to accommodate public events.

Solar energy harvesting device become lens for beam lights to render a poetic night scene of light plays.

