

A Celebration of Energy

The platform is simple addition to the existing pier that adds another attraction to the exciting coast. Unlike other attractions that cost money, users are encouraged to interact with the piece for their own enjoyment and for the betterment of the environment. The bioluminescent algae serves as a breathtaking visual representation of the energy that is captured with every step.

Dancing, skipping, and jumping. These are the less daunting tools to a more sustainable future.